PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

December 28, 1972

Dear Member,

It is with a feeling of pride and of humility that I assume the office of president. The officers of previous years have done such an outstanding job that we must continue to do much to live up to their accomplishments.

New doors of research have been opened through the purchase of many books and films. The new micro-film reader is a marked asset, as the other one is often in use when one comes to do research.

I know we all have a feeling of pride when we study anew our Sesquicentennial edition of "Family Findings".

As we pause to reflect on why we study genealogy, I believe we will all want to work a little harder. Genealogy is something to "latch-on to" as unchanging, in a very fast changing world. Our children need to know the background, customs, traditions and lives of their family. History is made by every life. If we do not record it, before long it will be forgotten, as will our lives. So, let us take advantage of our todays and preserve a little of Us as we go through life.

May I say "thank you" to each of you for your work of the past, and ask for your suggestions and continued co-operation in the new year.

Sincerely,

Lois Newman
President

Dear Fellow Members:

As your newly elected Editor of "Family Findings", my sincere hope is that this year's work will be beneficial to all our members. Please keep in mind we are amateurs striving to collect and publish materials that will make your own research easier. Errors are bound to occur, typographically and grammatically, but our materials will be as accurate as humanly possible.

I can hardly believe we are starting our fifth year as a society. Our former Editor, Mrs. L. R. Mitchell, served us so well the past four years that I am sure each of you would like to thank her for her every effort in making "Family Findings" such a success. She will continue to serve our Society as Corresponding Secretary. She will be a great help to me as I call on her often for assistance and advice.

Our membership has grown to well over 200 members. Your enthusiasm for "Family Findings" makes us most happy. This is your publication. We ask that you help us compile it by submitting records that will be helpful to other members. Also, by letting us know what you are most interested in, we can serve you better. It would be impossible to print a quarterly in which each member found a 'gem' they had been seeking, but we hope each of you will hit the "jack-pot" often enough to keep you interested in your research and to prod you on.

As your editor I will be working with a very able group of people mentioned elsewhere in this quarterly. Please keep their names and addresses handy and when you have a Bible Record, Cemetery Record, Queries etc, send them to the proper person for publication.

Thanking you in advance for the help I know you will be giving, I am

Very truly yours,

Charlotte (Mrs. Dempsey) Thornton
Editor

THE HOWSE LINE

The Howse family is an old Tennessee family. Originally, the Howses settled in Virginia and in the middle nineteenth century migrated to Tennessee. The author has traced his direct Howse lineage for seven generations.

Laurence Howse II was born in Sussex County, Virginia. He and Lucy Hobbs were married in 1771. They had three children: Martha, Crawley, and Elizabeth. Laurence Howse was a captain in the Virginia State Militia and his heirs were allowed bounty land after his death in 1834.

Crawley Howse married Nancy Stuart in 1809. They also had three children: Mary, David, and Susanna. Apparently, Crawley and Nancy Howse were dead by 1833 because the court assigned the orphan children to their uncle, Col. Lewis Stuart. Col. Stuart, who served in the War of 1812, was Nancy Stuart's brother.

David Howse married Lucy Ann Stuart. Lucy was David's cousin, the daughter of Col. Lewis Stuart. Seven children were born to David and Lucy. The children were: Flora, William, Ann, Lewis Crawley, John, Susan, and Frederick. Lewis Crawley was the first of the Howse children to be born in Tennessee. He was born in 1845. Lucy died in 1852 and David Howse married Litishia Hazelwood. They had ten children who were as follows: Benjamin, David, Joshua, Elenn, Nancy, James, Mary, Clare, Fannie, and Reuben.

Lewis Crawley Howse married Martha Hazelwood in 1866. Eleven children were born to Lewis and Martha. The children were: Lucy, William, Mattie, Fred, Jennie, Reuben, Aurelia, Mary Sue, Clyde, Rena Belle, and Walter. Lewis Crawley Howse served for the Confederacy in the Civil War. He was a sergeant in Company K, 14th (Neely's) Tennessee Cavalry.

Rena Belle Howse, the grandmother of the author, married Rev. Edgar Thomas Thorn in 1906. They had three children: Esther, Edgar, and Miriam. Rev. Thorn was born in Denmark, Tennessee. He passed away in 1969 at the age of ninety-four. Rena is now eighty-eight years old and is living in Darby, Montana, where she has lived for forty-five years.

Rena Howse Thorn remembers her parents and grandparents well. She has many memories and exciting stories about the Old South and Tennessee.

ANCESTRALLY SPEAKIN'

The following letter and family record were purchased in a flea market somewhere in Texas several years ago by a relative of Mrs. Cora M. Anglin, R. F. D. #2, Box 221, Jackson, Tn. 38301. Mrs. Anglin has the originals in her possession and submitted them to be published in FAMILY FINDINGS in the hopes of helping someone who might be interested in the NESBITT family.

JOHN L. STUART FAMILY BIBLE

The following Bible records were copied from the old Stuart Bible on August 18, 1971, by Mrs. L. R. Mitchell, 72 Woodhaven Drive, Jackson, Tennessee 38301. At that date the Bible was in the possession of Mrs. Elizabeth Moore Hardister of Vildo, Haywood County, Tennessee, who is the granddaughter of John L. Stuart.

John L. Stuart was the son of Col. Louis Stuart and Mariah Holt Clark. Louis Stuart was born Feb. 19, 1782, and married Mariah Holt Clark, who was born in Virginia September 27, 1800, on October 3, 1815. To this union was born: Arrington, October 16, 1816; Lucy Ann, August 29, 1818; Mary Sue, April 25, 1820; William Wiley, January 16, 1823; John Louis, December 25, 1825; Martha Mariah, August 3, 1827; Sally Margaret, February 25, 1829; Benjamin Clark, May 10, 1833; Adelia Louvenia, May 29, 1835; and Alberta Helen, January 4, 1837.

Col. Louis Stuart was a tailor by trade and traveled from place to place in his work. He was taken ill in Chesterfield County, Virginia, and died November 14, 1837. He served in the War of 1812 as an ensign in Capt. Wm. Parson's Company.

John Louis Stuart came to Tennessee when a young man with his sister, Lucy Ann, and her husband, David Howse, and all located in Haywood County. After one year John Louis went back to Virginia by boat up the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers to Pittsburg, and by stage to Virginia. After about one year, in which time he settled his family's business, he brought all the Stuart family by covered wagon to Haywood County. Mrs. Elizabeth Moore Hardister remembers hearing her grandfather tell of the journey crossing the mountains and below seeing the snow fall.

The Frontispiece of the old Stuart Bible is missing, but the following was found at the beginning of the New Testament.

The New Testament of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ Translated Out of the Original Greek and with The Former Translations Diligently Compared and Revised. Philadelphia. Jesper Harding. 1854.

Sat., before Second Lord's day in Sept. 1848: Annual election of pastor. A motion made to dispense with the former rule of annual election and "when a pastor is elected he is to serve as long as it suits both parties".

Sat., before Second Sabbath in Oct., 1848, Bro. HAMILTON SAVAGE had been waited on by a Comm., gave the Comm. no satisfaction and was excluded for non attendance.

Aug. 7, 1849: GRAY WESTBROOK was received into fellowship, by recantation.

Sat., second Sunday in Sept, 1849, church voted to build a house of worship, a building Comm. was appointed with power to go ahead: ALSEY DEAN, THOS. LACY, J. B. FAUCETT, OWEN EMERSON, GREY WESTBROOK.

Jan. meeting, 1850: Two confessed to having been drunk and one of the two had had a fight, both forgiven. At same meeting as a memorial from JAMES LACY, N. S. JOYNSON, JAMES EMERSON, DAVID LACY, BENNETT STARKEY and WM. BUTLER asking for letters to organize a church at Medon was laid over until the meeting in March of same year.

March meeting: A motion was made by JAMES LACY that an arm of the church be extended to Medon and this was voted down. About this time the church seemed to have great trouble with the brethren drinking and not attending church and seemed to deal with each case promptly.

October meeting, 1850: A memorial was received from several members asking for letters to join a church at Medon. The letters were not granted since the church thought the church at Medon illegally constituted.

June, 1851: The church excludcd B. STARKEY, N. S. JOHNSON, D. LACY, SARAH LACY and CATHARINE LACY for "disorderly conduct" in joining a church in Medon.

April, 1851: Bro. T. C. CRABTREE was cited to appear before the church to answer a charge made by Bro. S. CARTER of settling a certain dispute with him with a stick. Also Bro. A. THOMPSON accused Bro. NASH GLIDEWELL of Drinking liquor immorally. Church withdrew fellowship from JAS. EMERSON and family and WM. BUTLER and family for joining church at Medon.

CLOVER CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH

Clover Creek Church, United Baptist, situated in Hardeman County, Tennessee, was constituted Saturday preceeding the third Lord's Day in March and the year of our Lord 1826 by Elders OBADIAH DODSON and CORNELIUS McCLOLISC. The following members were subjects of the Constitution of the church, viz: AULACY DEAN, HENRY MARSH, EBINITUS STEPHENS, ABIJAH BOOTHE, DENNY SPURLIN, and ANNA SPURLIN.

The following are interesting facts gathered from reading the Minutes of Clover Creek Church from the date of its organization, March, 1826, until Saturday before the second Lord's day in July, 1884. Submitted to FAMILY FINDINGS by Mrs. Cyrus T. Arnold, 44 Ridgevue, Jackson, Tennessee 38301.

CHURCH ROLL: Although the church was organized in 1826 and the Abstract of Principles was adopted in 1845, there does not appear any roster of members earlier than 1849. The first roll is "A list of members, male and female, belonging to Clover Creek Baptist Church May, 1849":

COMPANY A, 4th TEXAS CAVALRY HISTORY
AND MUSTER ROLL

A great many of the Texas pioneers lived, at one time, in Tennessee and we find Tennessee-family names throughout the following article, which was printed in the Devine News of Devine, Medina County, Texas; unfortunately, the article is not dated:

Among the effects of the late A. O. FERGUSON, who passed away at the home of his nephew, J. BOX ROBERTS, was found the following record of Company A, 1st Regiment, Sibley's Brigade (4th Texas Cavalry). This company was mustered into the Confederate service at San Antonio August 27, 1861, and was composed of men principally from Guadalupe and Caldwell Counties [Texas]. This company under the command of CAPT. W. P. HARDEMAN was the first to be mustered into the brigade and was therefore known as Company "A".

On August 28, CAPT. JOHN S. SHROPSHIRE of Colorado county mustered in his company as Company "A" of the 2nd Regiment of the Brigade.

On September 26, the Brigade was complete with 30 companies. The first was called the 4th Regiment Texas Cavalry; the second was called the 5th and the third was known as the 7th Regiment.

The Brigade officers were: BRIG. GENERAL H. H. SIBLEY, MAJOR A. M. JACKSON, Acting Adjutant-General; CAPT. R. T. BROWNRIGG, A.Q.M.; CAPT. GRIFFIN, commissary; DR. COVEY, brigade surgeon; W. L. ROBARDS, aide-de-camp; THOMAS P. OCHILTREE and JOSEPH E. DWYER, volunteer aids.

The regimental officers of the first regiment were:

JAMES RILEY, colonel
W. R. SCURRY, lieutenant col.
H. H. RAGUET, Major
H. E. LOEBNITZ, quartermaster
CAPTAIN NOBLES, commissary
E. R. LANE, adjutant
J. W. MATCHETT and _____ TAYLOR, assistant surgeons.

The officers of the second regiment were:

TOM GREEN, colonel
HARRY McNEILL, lieutenant colonel
SAM LOCKRIDGE, major

Of the 3rd regiment:

W. M. STEELE, colonel
J. S. SUTTON, lieutenant col.
A. P. BAGBY, major.

On October 23, the First regiment took up the line of March for El Paso, reaching Fort Bliss January 1, 1862. The brigade reached Fort Thorn that month and established headquarters.

The battle of Val Verde took place on February 21, 1862. Confederates numbered about 2800; the Federals, 5000, and the latter had choice of positions. The battle was a desperate one, resulting in the Federals retreating. The Confederate losses were 39 killed, 169 wounded and 30 missing.

The next fight took place at Apache Canon or Glorietta. It was a draw fight, but MAJOR RAGUTE of the 1st regiment was killed.

About April 8th, 1862, Co. A. First Regiment, commanded by CAPTAIN L. STEVENSON, which had been left as a garrison at Albuquerque, was attacked by about 1500 Federals but the attack was repulsed. Another fight took place on the 13th, in which Federals were again defeated.

Sibley's brigade then began the retreat, down the Rio Grande, and reached San Antonio in the first part of July, where a furlough was granted until October 28, 1862.

The next fight was at Galveston, January 1, 1863, in which the Confederates were again victorious. Sixteen days later we started to Louisiana, arriving at Opelousa in March, 1863. In a fight at Bisland, April 12, the Confederates were defeated. COL. TOM GREEN was made Brigadier and Lieutenant Col. RILEY was killed; also PENDLETON FRANCIS and JIM HELM of Company A.

The next battle was at Brashear and the Confederates were successful.

At Donaldson the Confederates were defeated. The battles of Fourche and Fordoche were won by the Confederates and, in the battle of Bourboux, November 1, 1863, the federals were again defeated.

The brigade started to return to Texas December 14th, but was ordered back to Louisiana to re-inforce GEN. DICK TAYLOR, reaching Natchitoches March 20th, 1864.

The battle of Mansfield was fought on April 8, where ROBERT W. FERGUSON was mortally wounded, dying eight days later.

The battle of Pleasant Hill was fought April 9th, battle of Blain's Landing on the 10th of April, 1864. Here GENERAL TOM GREEN was killed. The command of the brigade then fell to GEN. A. P. BAGBY.

The next fight was at Monett's Ferry, with another at Mansura or Marksville Prairie. The battle of Simmersport on May 18 was the last of the campaign.

The brigade was disbanded at Millican, Texas, in May, 1865.

#183 CROCKETT, SMITH

Tradition says that my gg gf. Aaron (Eron) CROCKETT b. 1782 d. ?, m. Nancy _____ in 1804 was a brother of Davy CROCKETT. His children include: John S. b. 1820, Aaron or Eron, Cloe who was 1st wife of Wm. Washington SMITH, Parky, Betty, Becky, Lily and Betsy. Cannot find an Aaron CROCKETT listed in the published material as a brother to Davy, even though several books refer to a brother whose name is not known. Can anyone help me with this problem? I am especially interested in CROCKETT and SMITH families that lived in Weakley Co. during the early and mid-1800's.
